

CANOPIC ARRIVES WITH 9,000 YANKS

NEW YORK, April 15.—The troop ship Canopic, one of six transports scheduled to dock at this port today with approximately 9,000 American soldiers from overseas, arrived at Quarantine shortly after 8 o'clock. She will dock at Pier 61, North river. The Canopic is bringing detachments of the 332d Infantry, part of which arrived here from Italy Monday on the Duca d'Aosta. Other detachments of the 332d Infantry are due to reach here tomorrow on the Dante Alighieri.

The transport Mexican reached this port late yesterday and was unable to proceed to her pier until today. The other troop ships due to discharge khaki-clad cargoes here during the day are the Edward Luckenbach, the Lancaster, Carillo, and Calamare.

The Calamare is bringing back 2,273, including the 316th engineers, field and staff, headquarters, veterinary, ordnance, and medical detachments, train, companies A, B, C, D, E, and F, 47 officers and 1,605 men; ninety-first division headquarters, headquarters troop, train headquarters, military police, and postal detachment, 43 officers and 430 men; casual companies 629, Ohio, and 638 marines.

ROOSEVELT LAUDS SALVATION ARMY

Expressing the gratitude of the officers and enlisted men of the navy for the services rendered by the Salvation Army, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Acting Secretary of the Navy, today issued a statement endorsing the coming drive of the Salvation Army for funds in Washington.

"The department desires to express the gratitude of the officers and men of the United States navy for all the many good things the Salvation Army has done for them during the world war," writes Mr. Roosevelt. "The efficiency of your organization has been well matched by the constant desire of the individual worker to serve the men to the best of his or her ability."

The second meeting of the executive committee of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund drive was held yesterday under the direction of Earl Godwin, chairman. Chairman of the doughnut committee, announced that $70 had been received from Saturday's sale of doughnuts at the Food Administration cafeteria.

Among those present at the meeting were Mrs. Louis Brownlow, Isaac Gans, Julius Peyser, M. O. Chance, John B. Colpoys, Rear Admiral McGowan, Col. Robert N. Harper, Kemper Cowing, Henry B. F. Macfarland, and Milton E. Ailes.

NAVY SCHOONER AFIRE; ALL HANDS RESCUED

The navy auxiliary schooner Pensacola was reported on fire off Fenwick Island shoals near the Delaware breakwater, last Sunday, the Navy Department announced today.

All hands were rescued by the U. S. S. McKean.

OIL STOVE STARTS $500 FIRE.
Damage estimated at $500 was caused by fire yesterday when an oil stove exploded on a rear porch of the home of Charles J. Gooch, 6435 Piney Branch road northwest. An automobile truck belonging to J. H. Wilkins, 819 Rhode Island avenue, caught fire from a leaky gasoline tank near Twelfth and Pennsylvania yesterday. Damage was small.

BUY U. S. S. WITH COUPONS.
Reinvestment in war savings stamps of the $150,000,000 which holders of the Fourth Liberty loan bonds will receive today as interest was urged by the savings division of the Treasury. It was pointed out that if this sum was invested in war savings stamps at once it would be redeemable in 1924 at a profit to investors of more than $30,000,000.
